

Equality For All

Equality means that each person is given the same rights, opportunities, and resources to be successful, regardless of their differences.

Types Of Equality

- Skin Color
- Disability
- Where Someone Is From
- Family Income
- Age
- Gender
- Religion

For each situation, identify the type of equality that has been violated and explain how equality could be practiced instead.

SITUATION	TYPE OF EQUALITY VIOLATED
1. Your friend is getting bullied by classmates who say her family lives in the poor part of town.
Equality could be promoted by...
2. You notice that students with certain skin colors are never chosen to be the leaders for group activities, even when they volunteered.
Equality could be promoted by...
3. Your friend refused to talk to the new student because she said “people from other countries don’t belong here.”
Equality could be promoted by...
4. Your friend wanted to run for class president but another kid said no one would elect him because he uses a wheelchair.
Equality could be promoted by...

Draw a line to the matching phrase.

Equality looks like...

Equality does not look like....

- Treating some people as less important than others
- Ignoring when someone is bullied because of how they look
- Getting to know people who are different from you
- Refusing to give people with disabilities access to fun activities
- Making rules that only certain groups of people can follow
- Making sure everyone gets the same chances
- Celebrating differences instead of making fun of them
- Letting people make their own choices
- Standing up for others when they’re being treated unfairly
- Saying “that’s only for boys” or “that’s only for girls”